Artist Statement

Jenna Compagnucci's "Caged" series showcases a type of dangerous surface beauty. Inspired by historic methods of torture and high fashion; the viewer is led to contemplate constriction, obstruction, self-restriction, and subtle violence. We tend to view beauty on a peaceful and docile preface, whereas some individuals weaponize this factor and profit from it. "Pain is beauty" and "beauty is pain" applies to this work on levels that reach psychology, physical well-being, and perception.

Artist Bio

Jenna Compagnucci is a New Jersey based multimedia artist. She will be receiving her Bachelor of Fine Arts from the College of New Jersey in Ewing, NJ in the summer of 2020. Compagnucci takes inspiration from psychology, folklore, religion, and the dichotomy between man and nature. She has a background in textiles, clothing design and production, illustration, and hair/makeup artistry. Her most recent works involve sculpture, photography, and illustration. Compagnucci also does a large amount of relief printing that frequents her artist shop.
