

COSA Art Presentation

Mackenzie Mabin

SPRING 2020

In-progress work

Untitled, 2020, Embroidery Floss and Canvas,
24x15 inches (In Progress)

Embroidery of stuffed bear, sewn by artists' late grandmother and given to artist as a child.

Untitled, 2020, Embroidery Floss and Canvas,
24x12 inches (in Progress)
Embroidery of clay frog, artist made for her late grandfather when she was a child.

Untitled, 2020, wood and polyurethane, 30x4x22 Inches(In Progress)

A four piece wooden table, representing the artist and her three siblings. Using a live edge tree stump, all pieces are separate and different, but they come from the same tree. Similar to a family/

Mackenzie Mabin graduated from Mercer County Community College with an Associates in Fine Arts in 2018. In the same year, she was awarded the Abrams' Foundations Scholarship. In May of 2020, she will graduate from The College of New Jersey with a Bachelor's in Fine Art.

Mackenzie currently works in sculpture and embroidery, while focusing on the idea of family.