

Lions Nonprofit Consulting Firm (LNCF) is a pro bono, student-run organization whose mission is to provide community-based organizations with consultation on their respective online marketing and social media strategies. Clients will work closely with the LNCF student consultants who will provide personalized counsel based on each organization's individual needs. Student consultants will gain hands-on experience in the field of public relations, communications, and marketing. LNCF strives to reflect the goals and principles of the TCNJ Bonner program in the areas of community engagement, social justice, and leadership development.
